Sound the body can feel.

Vibroacoustic Therapy lets the body listen with more than the ears. Low-frequency sound becomes gentle, organized vibration that travels through tissue, fluid and bone — guiding the nervous system out of fight-or-flight and into deep, restorative rest. In that coherent state the body remembers how to repair itself: breath deepens, muscles release, circulation opens, and the mind grows quiet and spacious. Because every cell is a resonant being, sound becomes a language the whole body understands.

◆ Eased discomfort & muscle tension

WIRED BY DESIGN · ZERO WIRELESS EMF

Pure sound. No wireless. No EMF.

Most vibroacoustic “healing” devices rely on Bluetooth and wireless transmitters — bathing the body in electromagnetic frequencies during the very session meant to restore it. We understand this science, so the Quantiom system is built differently. Every connection is fully wired, end to end — mat, headset, and source. Only clean, organized sound reaching the body as nature intended.

◆ 100% wired signal path

◆ No Bluetooth or transmitters

Vibroacoustic music created for vibroacoustic technologies and pure audio streaming. Excellent for stress relief, massage, meditation, and muscle relaxation. Born from a vision to produce music that induces healing and tranquility through pure sound and love-inspired melody — mixed to take advantage of the unique energy field produced by a sound table, a soothing symphony of vibration intended to envelop you in light and sound. The tuning for the track is 432 Hz.

A 30-minute sonic journey through magical soundscapes — from deeply earthy tones to otherworldly, extraterrestrial realms. Features microtonal tuning for mathematically pure, naturally resonant intervals. At its heart lies a captivating improvisation by guest composer Steve Flato on a modified electric guitar, with modular-synthesizer textures and an analog Moog bass. Hypnotic pulsations flow through the body while ethereal tones shift and evolve. Perfect for meditation, sound healing, massage therapy, or Reiki.

A Temple in the Sky

15:33 track · © 2020 · MP3 (256 kbps) · Energy Exchange · $29.95

Inspired by a shared vision while hiking along the Niagara Gorge. Moving along the river, we glimpsed what appeared to be a crystalline temple floating above the water. This music imagines the journey into that etheric structure — my hope is that it helps us travel into an inner-space more open than our current surroundings.

“— Chris Deuel”

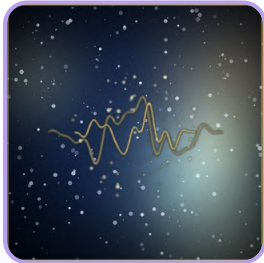

Hathor Immaterial

33 minutes · © 2025 · MP3 (320 kbps) · NEW · Energy Exchange · $29.95

Composed for the more adventurous listener. This is ‘channeled’ music, inspired by a dream in which I sat in a circle with beings singing some of the most beautiful music I had ever heard. For a moment I left my body and they began to sing through me. What resulted is 33 minutes holding two things dear — sounds with otherworldly characteristics, and something deeply human.

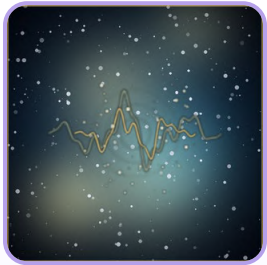

“Expect vast soundscapes that reflect the alien nature within us all. — Chris Deuel”

Lunar Circuits

20-minute track · © 2025 · MP3 (320 kbps) · NEW · Energy Exchange · $29.95

Inspired by the phases of the moon, in three distinct sections. The first is rhythmic and energizing, with regal ascending melodies over a steady bassline. The second is graceful and ephemeral, weaving ascending and descending motifs into a rich tapestry. The final section showcases a mesmerizing generative sequence grounded by an analog bass synthesizer.

Violet Flame Meditation

16-minute track · © 2015 · MP3 (256 kbps) · Energy Exchange · $29.95

Created to form a sonic representation of the violet flame, attuned to its sacred temple in the etheric realm and acting as a bridge between the physical and higher dimensions. With vibroacoustic technology, a powerful resonant field forms around the body, allowing the transmuting energies of the violet ray to be more easily accessed. Music, Tibetan bowls and bells.

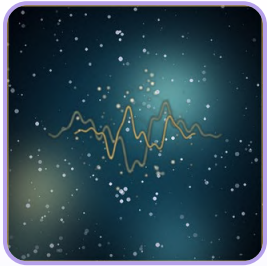

Violet Flame II

31 minutes · 5 tracks · © 2020 · MP3 (256 kbps) · Energy Exchange · $29.95

Explores five functions of the violet flame: washing, cleansing, spinning, raising and sealing. These piano-based meditations wind through illusive harmonies and beautiful melodies, each made to transmute whatever holds us back into a more joyous counterpart.

Stars Become Portals – Five Harmonic Drones

30 minutes · 5 tracks · © 2020 · MP3 (320 kbps) · Energy Exchange · $29.95

Five Harmonic Drones — the first time I tried this I was in a rather agitated state. After four minutes I simply ‘dropped’ into a coherent state. Wonderful harmonic explorations created for vibroacoustic technologies and immersive audio.

“— Chris Deuel”

Twenty-five years of sacred sound.

The Quantum Field Medicine library grew out of decades of hands-on work with vibroacoustic systems, beginning in the late 1990s — early experiments focused on how low-frequency vibration could be delivered through sound tables and chairs so the body could feel each frequency clearly.

The Spinal Vibrational Frequencies were developed after a chiropractor shared research on the resonant frequencies of the vertebrae. Because many sit above the range easily felt by the body, subharmonics were introduced so they could be experienced through vibroacoustic equipment.

Over time, additional series were developed for structural work, body systems, energetic balancing, and relaxation. Today the library includes dozens of frequency tracks and vibroacoustic compositions used by practitioners and individuals worldwide.

Fifteen years of sacred sound, channeled into form.

The Quantum Field Medicine library grew out of decades of hands-on work with vibroacoustic systems, beginning in the late 1990s — refining how low-frequency vibration could be delivered so the body could feel each frequency clearly.

Every composition is engineered with tuned intervals, sculpted sub-harmonics, and analog warmth, layered so the vibration lands cleanly in the body. Created for vibroacoustic technologies and pure audio alike by composer Chris Deuel and the Quantiom Energy Science circle — music not merely meant for the ears, but for the whole resonant being.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

A few gentle answers.

“What are Quantum Field / Vibroacoustic Frequencies?”

Precisely tuned low-frequency sound vibrations designed to be felt in the body as gentle, organized resonance — or experienced as a pure, high-fidelity audio stream. They help relax the body, calm the nervous system, and support the body's own capacity to heal.

“What are the benefits of Vibroacoustic Therapy?”

Eased physical discomfort and muscle tension, softened stress and anxiety, deeper sleep, improved circulation and mobility, easier breath, and a profound sense of calm, clarity and emotional release — by guiding the nervous system into coherent, parasympathetic rest.

“How do I choose which to use?”

Each track is grouped into a series — Pain Management, Human Body, Muscle & Structural, and Energy & Balancing for frequencies; and Deep Relaxation, Integration & Balancing, Energy & Clarity, and Meditative & Transformational for music.

“How is Vibroacoustic Music different?”

Vibroacoustic music marries masterful composition with carefully sculpted low-frequency vibrational elements, so each piece can be both heard in exquisite detail and felt as resonance moving through the body.

“How do I experience these tracks for full impact?”

Every track can be experienced on any vibroacoustic technology, and reaches its deepest expression on the Quantiom Mat — 12 precision transducers — paired with our hi-def immersive headset. Each also streams beautifully as pure audio through any speakers or headphones.

“What formats are available?”

All tracks are available as high-quality MP3 download (256 kbps or higher). A download link is emailed after your order is processed.
